Fight On

One who never turned his back but marched breast forward,
Never doubted, though right were worsted, wrong would triumph,
Held we fall to rise, are baffled to fight better,
Sleep to wake.

No, at noonday in the bristle of man's work-time
Greet the unseen with a cheer;
Bid him forward, breast and back as either should be.
"Strive and thrive!" "Speed - fight on,
fare ever
There as here!"

Robert Browning.

The June 1945

COG'N'PEN

IN these strenuous days it is extremely difficult to get done the little additional things which are in the daily routine. We studied, attended school, worked in stores, shops and factories. We helped in all kinds of community and national service—and yet we also found time for compiling, editing and publishing the June 1945 Cog'n'Pen.

Class Song

Fair Central, our Commencement time is here!
Abode of friends, we leave but will return.
We owe to you our golden theme sincere
And e'er a new light will discern.

A light of grand democracy so pure,
Within your walls, we learned the golden rule;
Your immortality we know is sure,
You reflect America's purpose, O dear school.

Majestic school, such confidence you give!
O blue and white, we sing a last refrain.
On lofty heights your rousing fame will live;
Your children we evermore remain.

Oh star of youth, you've stimulated power;
Things more than wealth you've awakened in each mind;
Joy in the work that soon fills every hour;
Inspiring the duties that we find.

Fair Central, now we love thee more
Than all the treasures, known of yore.
Your sons and daughters will be true
To your glorious, glorious white and blue.

Kenneth Smallwood.

"THE GREEN YEARS"

ALL great events, institutions, and even persons, have their personal histories. The following is but a short history of the class of June, 1945.

World War II! Class enters Central High School!! These were but two of the great historical facts of that unforgettable year, 1941. A brand new bunch of kids, all sizes and shapes, entering Central High. Most of them were scared to death of the big building, the large number of teachers, and the teasing seniors. Of course, there was the big thrill of going to high school, but a bigger thrill of being able to go to Central High School!!

Our freshmen felt neglected as there were no girls in their classes during the first two years. All they saw were junior and senior girls, who, of course, thought them to be mere children. The first year was used in getting acquainted with the new teachers, the surroundings, and the laws of the school. Amid the distractions of world conflict, the cowardly attack on Pearl Harbor, sailors, soldiers, and marines leaving to fight for our most priceless possession, liberty; the class successfully completed its first year.

As sophomores, we began to feel as though we were getting up in the world. We attended games, dances, and even teased the new freshmen. Having mastered our freshman and sophomore years, we proceeded into our junior year, 3B. At this stage we were introduced to our faculty advisors, Miss Kaufman and Mr. Lewis. Our boys began at this time to pay particular attention to personal appearance. After all, Central, for them, had finally become co-ed. The arrival of the girls seemed to set off the fireworks. The rougher sex had already begun to prepare themselves for varsity sports. In 3A we had our first election. Those elected were Bill Kelleher, president; Ralph Casale, vice-president; Eleanor Nicoletti, secretary; and Sam Arella, treasurer. Bill was doing very nicely until Uncle Sam stepped into the picture. Ralph Casale took over and carried our class through the task of setting up our constitution. Slowly it took its form and after much discussion, both pro and con, the constitution was presented to the class. Meanwhile, our basketball, football, and baseball teams all began to capture the lime light with great success.

Toward the middle of the term we had our 3A social in the upper gym. It was our first class gathering and we had a grand time in spite of many difficulties. Some of our people preferred the dark hall to dancing, while our hostesses, wearing blue ribbon corsages, tried their best to keep us dancing.

The days flew, at last we were senior B's. Our ring committee was selected and after a short discussion our rings were ordered. Sam Arella was still urging the payment of dues, even though the representatives did sort of throw the money at him any old time of day.

Election time soon came again. Competition for all offices was keen. Ed Stickel became our new president with Jeanette Zito as our vice-president. Eleanor and Sam were re-elected for the offices which they had previously occupied. The 4A's were busily preparing for their great day in January while we held our 4B afternoon dance. It seemed as though everyone bought tickets.

After school, towards the end of our 4B term the yearbook man came. Stickel, Del Gaizo, Coviello, Minichino, and Arella selected the yearbook cover and tried their best to keep it a secret. Everyone wanted to know if the colors were to be orange and black.

Then came our "Aloha" dance. Invitations were given to the faculty, the 4A's and the 4B's. Mrs. Welles and her decorating club together with our decorating committee did a grand job in decorating the gym, Hawaiian style. Our advisors and our guest advisors looked magnificent and everyone, even the 4A's, commented on the wonderful time everyone had.

Then graduation time came, and the 4A's left. Some of us were sorry because our best boy or girlfriend was gone. We were finally the superior classmen of Central.

Affairs assumed a new aspect upon our entrance into our last half year. This was to be the concluding chapter of our life at Central High School. Most of the time in our last term was taken up with the manifold activities descending upon our graduation class, such as editing the yearbook, preparing for class day and most important, graduation. We attended Student Council dances, games, assemblies and other school activities with the feeling that our younger school mates were really envying us. Our football and basketball teams did a marvelous job in attaining victories. Our football team ranked second place in the city championship while our basketball team was undefeated in the city competition and with only two defeats in other scheduled competition.

At long last came the time for taking pictures of the individual members of our class. With our hair primped and dressed in our Sunday best, we trotted up to 519 and posed for our pictures. When the proofs came back, there followed the customary public denunciation of the lack of similarity between the photograph and the subject "in carne." "It doesn't even look like me, (sob)." "Let me see your pictures? Oh, they're nice," were the many familiar phrases.

It was time for our last election and everyone wanted to hold office except Ed. After much persuasion, Ed Stickel finally declared he would run for president. Everyone decided they'd better not run against him. With Lois Andlauer as his campaign manager and his basketball popularity he just couldn't lose. Several of us were after that vice-president position, which went to Patsy Nufrio. (We're sure it was his smile. We all fell for it.) Eleanor, like Ed, had no opponents. We were all satisfied with the way she had handled things. Sam Arella managed to come in too, and everyone was happy.

All at once, with a terrific roar, our editor began to give out the many tasks to be performed by certain individuals. Bruno Verducci was asked to obtain all the pictures possible for the sports section. Vincent Coviello was asked to write a resume on sports. The popularity ballot was distributed and everyone wanted to know whom they should vote for. Miss Winberg was busy with the class song while Miss Kaufman and Mr. Lewis, were doing so many things at once, it would be impossible to mention them all. The 4A's (some of them) were running around like mad, smack into startled freshmen, to get something which was past due, to Miss Kaufman's office.

After the Easter vacation, our minds were filled with plans for our graduation and for the coming future.

After our yearbook went to press we looked forward to the dance the senior B's would give in our honor. We could attend this dance and enjoy ourselves to our hearts' content without wondering who would return on Saturday, the following day, to help Mrs. Welles take down the decorations.

Soon the time came for leaving the rooms and halls which had grown so dear to us. It was with the mingled feeling of regret and joy that we looked upon our departure, that night in June; regret that we were about to leave C. H. S. never more to linger there as students, and joy because we were actually getting out of school to take our place in this large and troubled world to conquer and triumph, to bring glory and honor to our Alma Mater. The time had gone so swiftly!

Suddenly, we have a vision! It is eight-thirty. The girls are on one side and the boys on the other. It won't be long now before the organ will begin to play that lovely march. Even the most unsentimental ones are beginning to feel a lump in their throats. "Suppose I trip," "On which side does the tassel go?" are among the many last remarks. Soon the assembly settles under a deep hush while the first notes come pouring out of the organ. There is Mr. Ralston, together with Miss Kaufman, and Mr. Lewis, standing on the stage. Faces begin to swim in front of us. The time has finally come. Slowly we march down the aisle to our assigned places. Everything becomes confused—going to the game? — see you at Margarets — going out with Ed tonight? — got your English homework? — you know, Mr. — passed me. A thousand memories take place. The organ is playing "High Above the Busy City." Tonight above all nights, how difficult it is to sing. In a very short time it will be all over.

Thank you Central, for the many happy moments you have given us. The unhappy ones have long been forgotten.

Hang up the shovel and the hoe, hang up the fiddle, and the bow, there's no more scholastic work for the Junes of '45; they've gone where all good seniors go!!!

OUR LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

*W*E are as the grass, which, in the morning is green and by evening is withered. Because mankind is frail, we feel impelled to state our last bequest. We realize that as wordly goods go we have very little to bestow or bequeath. But the wise men of the ages tell us that the intangibles are of more moment than the material things of life. We know further that the intangible things of the spirit are able to be transmitted and inherited.

In this belief, we set our hands and direct solemnly and sincerely the disposal of the following items.

May we add that we are all healthy young Americans not yet committed to Overbrook.

1. To Mr. Ralston, for his smiles of encouragement and words of wisdom, we leave our sincerest thanks; for his future, our heartfelt wishes for happiness.
2. To Mr. McCracken, we leave many free first periods so that he may gratify the wishes of numerous pupils for switches from the eighth.
3. To our advisors, who so faithfully carried us through our difficult task, we leave our sincere appreciation and profound thanks.
4. To the future senior A's we leave Good Will together with the task of carrying on our SERVICE TO ALL.
5. To Miss Mooney we leave our best wishes for another class like ours.
6. To the lunch room we leave brand new splinter extractors.
7. To all people, tardy, due to buses, we leave Mr. Inzeo and room 106.
8. To the coaches of Central we leave a long wanted string of victories.
9. To Miss O'Connor we leave a book entitled "The Appreciation of Girls."
10. To the Math Department we leave a new set of text books—covers included!
11. To the girls' rooms we leave Mirrors! Soap! Towels!
12. To the English teachers we leave our many mistakes in grammar, since such errors would be an impediment to our professional success.
13. To Mr. Thompson's physics classes we leave a new set of topics for composition material.
14. To Mr. Heiges we leave our fondest hopes that the future classes will leave him something else other than capable secretaries.
15. To the flag pole, we leave a new can of paint.
16. To the new freshmen we leave a batch of free elevator passes, a group of less complicated schedules, and easy-to-find rooms.
17. To the chemistry classes we leave the concoction of P-H-E-W!
18. To the dogs who frequent our school we leave Officer Shine.
19. To Mr. Coleman we leave that which remains, namely, chickens. (of the feathered kind.)
20. In conclusion, we give to all young people an abiding faith in America and its future.

We feel that this faith is our most important asset. Over eighty Central boys have dedicated their lives to the same belief.

We covet for all, not only faith in America, but the hope that it will be a strong, tolerant, abiding faith.

Alma Mater

Our dear Lady on the Hill.
High above the busy city,
Far beyond all touch of ill,
Sits enthroned our Alma Mater,

Chorus

Lift the chorus, send it swelling,
With a real and loyal will,
And our bounty be the beauty
Of our Lady on the Hill.

In the glory of the morning
Burns in lines of liquid gold,
Every upward pointing tower
Like some battlement of old.

Face we boldly every crisis,
Love the need of duty done,
As our pillared Alma Mater
Boldly fronts the rising sun.

Hope of youth and pride of manhood,
Standing steadfast, strong and sure
Guide us onward, ever upward,
Heritage of rich and poor.

Died March 2, 1945

"He is not dead who lives in the hearts he left behind"

SPORTOPICS ❖

It was during the September term of 1943 that our boys began to prepare themselves for varsity sports. During the first season, our class saw Central's football team, when it was one of the best of all Central teams, equipped in many positions by men of our class. Our first president, Bill Kelleher, was the best end in the city and mentioned in many All-State selections.

Football was immediately followed by the basketball season in which a team made up of three boys from our class won recognition as the best team in Essex County, and second only to Thomas Jefferson. Ed Stickel, our class president, was captain. Without doubt, he is one of the outstanding players of this team.

Central's baseball team soon captured the lime light under a new coach, Mr. Zachery Sosnow. It proved to be the best team representing the school in this sport, and was the first Central baseball team to represent the school in the Greater Newark Tournament. Jerry Guarino, of our class, received the highest award of any player on the team, All-County right fielder.

The class's first year of athletics was soon finished and through the efforts of the boys in our class, the teams earned high positions in the state. All our teams were feared and respected by opponents.

Our last year soon arrived and our boys went out again to add new glory and honor to the name of our beloved school in the field of sports.

We were again represented by an excellent football squad, which, in the opening game of the season against our rival, Nutley, became the first Newark school to beat them on the gridiron in a span of thirteen years. This team was lead by Steve Washuta who was ably assisted by Fred Berman, Dominick Colavita, and Bill Wiedman, all members of our class. We then closed the book on the last football season in Central during our presence.

Basketball rose to its peak during the 1945 season. Not since 1924 has a Central team advanced to the semi-finals in the state tournament. This 1945 squad has followed a long line of good Central teams to be classed as great.

Led by Captain Ed Stickel, the team ran through the toughest schedule ever planned by Central. After being eliminated by Union Hill High School in the State semi-finals, we were able to boast a record of twenty victories and only three losses.

Outstanding on the squad were Ed Stickel, who made the All-State team, Dave "Whitey" Nelson, Ed Suchiki, also 4A's, and Joe Gallagher, a junior.

Long, will memories of this team rest in the minds of sport fans of this state. Long after we have left the halls of Central, our team will be mentioned in news columns time and time again.

In closing the chapter of our lives at Central, we give our sincere appreciation to all persons who made the athletic teams at Central as successful as they have ever been. We particularly note Vincent Coviello for his sincere hard work. We regret that in a very short time we shall have to give up our well-earned positions never to return. We sincerely hope that in years to come, Central's boys and girls will carry on the fine traditions of our athletic program and continue the good sportsmanship for which Central is so famous.

EDWARD STICKEL

"Stick" as the boys call him, went out for basketball in his sophomore year. Immediately, Coach Fleischman realized his talents on the court and began to instruct him in the fundamentals of basketball. In 1943 Mr. Finck took over the team, noticed this lad's talent and "Stick" won a position on the varsity team. He has received two varsity letters and has been mentioned on the All-county team of our city as well as All-state team.

DAVID NELSON

"Whitey" went out for basketball in his sophomore year and won a position on the junior varsity. In 1944 Whitey proved himself varsity material and earned a position on the squad. During 1945 he became popular in school and in the newspapers as a set shot artist. He was mentioned on the all-city team.

JOHN DE PAUL

Johnny, an all-around fellow, has played in every sport in our school. He worked hard and won varsity letters in basketball and baseball. On the court he is fast and shifty. On the diamond, Johnny comes through with a hit when needed and really can catch flies.

EDWIN SUCHICKI

Suchicki, better known as "Sooch", went out for basketball in his sophomore year. Due to his height and accuracy in basketball, Coach Finck foresaw great possibilities in him and began to train him accordingly. In the next season, Sooch proved himself to be one of the best basketball players in our city. He earned one major letter.

BASKETBALL TEAM

*Blue and White, fight, fight,
 Blue and White, fight, fight,
 Who fight — we fight,
 Fight, team, fight.*

FOOTBALL TEAM

WILLIAM WIEDMAN

"Bill" went out for football in his sophomore year. He proved to be shifty and fast, although small. He won a position on the junior varsity team. During the next season, Bill attained his goal, varsity half back. He played on Central's top teams during his junior and senior years, and won two varsity letters.

FRED BERMAN

Fred went out for football in his sophomore year. His weight and height was an advantage to him. He won a position as left guard. During the season of 1943-44, Fred proved himself to be one of the finest players Central ever produced. He received two varsity letters in his school career.

DOMINICK COLAVITA

"Dom" went out for football in his junior year as guard. He was a fine blocker and fast on his feet. In the next season he won a position on the varsity team. Dom was one of the many boys who helped put Central's football team back on the map. He received one major letter for football.

STEVEN WASHUTA

"Rugged" Steve went out for football in his freshman year. During scrimmage the next season, he proved to be varsity material because of his fast charging, blocking, and passing. He developed into one of the best backs of our state. He and his fellow team mates brought back to Central the glory we desired.

LEONARD DONNERSTAG

"Lee" Donnerstag, a body of muscles, went out for our swimming team in his freshman year. In 1942 he captured the title of "City Champ" by defeating Captain Bill Dickson of West Side, then the title holder. During the next season, he broke the Newark High School record. From the one minute, three seconds mark, he lowered it to fifty seconds. Lee has won three swimming letters.

JERRY GUARINO

Jerry went out for baseball in his junior year with the hope of attaining the position of first baseman. Coach Sosnow needed a right fielder and, from the new boys selected Jerry for a tryout. By the end of that year, Jerry proved to be very successful. He was the only Central boy to make the All-county first team. He graduated as a two letter man in baseball.

Early in December 1944, the Year Book Committee gave to Mr. Norman W. Allis of the S. K. Smith Company, an order for white padded yearbook covers. We were assured the material was at hand.

March 9 we were informed, "We are not able to produce covers using the ivory base material."

This statement is made in fairness to the committee and especially to the Editor-in-Chief.

If this sacrifice has been necessitated by the emergencies of war, we, of the class of June 1945, gladly are in agreement.
